Ingol Golf Village Residents Association Aims & Objectives

Aims and Objectives:

The Association's primary aims and objectives are:

- a) To maintain the whole the Ingol Golf Course as open green space and area of separation for the benefit of the residents and neighbouring communities.
- b) To oppose any move to change the original Central Lancashire Development Corporation scheme for the Ingol Golf Village (the Village) and promote activities and amenities that enhance the Village and quality of life of its residents and neighbouring communities.
- c) To maintain the Village as it was originally planned, with a golf course, copses and woods, ponds and streams and the associated natural indigenous fauna and flora.
- d) To safeguard and promote the interest of residents in the area and neighbouring communities on matters that affect their quality of life.
- e) To promote engagement and involvement of the residents of the Village in the future development of the Village's social & recreational amenities for all sections of the community and use by neighbouring communities.
